Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDL)

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) is offering designated states and territories low-interest federal disaster loans for working capital to small businesses suffering substantial economic injury as a result of the Coronavirus (COVID-19).

Upon a request received from a state's or territory's Governor, SBA will issue under its own authority an Economic Injury Disaster Loan declaration*

As provided by the Coronavirus Preparedness and Response Supplement Appropriations Act that was recently signed by the President.*

Administrator Jovita Carranza

Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDL)

Revised Criteria (as of March 17, 2020)

1. Faster, Easier Qualification Process for States Seeking SBA Disaster Assistance.

Historically	Revised
At least five small businesses have suffered substantial economic injury as a result of a disaster with at least one business located in each declared county/parish .	Only required to certify that at least five small businesses within the state/territory have suffered substantial economic injury, regardless of where those businesses are located.

2. Expanded, Statewide Access to SBA Disaster Assistance Loans for Small Businesses.

Historically	Revised
SBA disaster assistance loans only available to small businesses within the primary and contiguous counties declared by SBA.	Economic Injury Loans related to Coronavirus will be available statewide following SBA's approval of a Governor's request for an economic injury declaration.
